

BI/BW Visualization Specialist

The BI/BW Visualization Specialist– BI shall possess a Bachelor’s Degree in Science. Additionally, each shall have 15+ years of Army experience and include 3+ years of Combined Arms Support Command (CASCOM)

Additionally, the candidate shall have:

- Balance of experience in GCSS-Army system, design, architecture, configuration, modeling, data extraction and reporting areas. Army Regulations,
- 15+years experience in Logistics management and Army Logistics Doctrine.
- Proven track record in support of Property account ability, Logistics Information Systems and Automated Logistics and Property Management.
- Knowledge of SAP GCSS-Army reporting tools and HANA Applications to include cloud integration. Cross functional knowledge of other SAP modules.
- Knowledge in Logistics Planning and data analysis
- Knowledge in Army Logistics and Automated Logistic as well as Property Management
- Knowledge in Equipment Fielding as well as procurement and budgeting
- Knowledge of data warehousing principals and best practice solutions.
- Experience in data mapping and modeling on government systems.
- The ability to build executive management and customer’s leadership
- 15+years in Army Logistic Planning & Data Analysis much
- The ability to working independently as well as in teams.
- The ability to conform to shifting priorities, demands and timelines.